

HEADS UP!

PACIFIC SECTOR WORKSHOP EVENT

FREE ADMISSION

Friday 5 Nov 2010 1.00pm – 4.00pm
Waipuna Hotel and Conference Centre, Auckland

Come along and hear the following expert presenters:

Presentation One: Our Children Our Future The harmful effects of smoking on the unborn child and the impact in the first . of life.	Dr Teuila Percival Head of Pacific Health School of Population Health University of Auckland
Presentation Two: Translating Policy into Action Lessons learned from the Australian experience of implementing smoke-free cars policy with high need communities.	Clinical Associate Professor Matthew Peters Concord Clinical School Sydney University, and Chairman - ASH Australia
Presentation Three: A Mother's Story: Supporting Pacific pregnant Women to Become Smokefree A General Practitioners experience in encouraging pregnant Pacific women to become smokefree.	Dr Minnie Strickland General Practitioner Alliance Health + AuckPac Clinical Services Auckland

Lock this date in now!

Please RSVP for catering to barbaraw@nhf.org.nz or call 09-5714643

For the Tobacco Free Aotearoa Conference 2010 programme visit:

www.smokefree.co.nz/conference2010/

